New College Durham is the Data Controller for the Personal Data we collect and hold. Our Data Protection Officer (DPO) can be contacted at records@newdur.ac.uk. Please contact the DPO if you have an enquiry about how the College manages your personal data or if you want to make a request in relation to your personal data rights, including to access information we may hold about you. We have a Data Protection Policy that you are welcome to review at www.newcollegedurham.co.uk.

When you apply for a course we will create an account to store information about your application and use it to contact you, or an appropriate parent/carer, in relation to your application, interviews, events and offers. If you don't choose to join a course of study within 6 years of creating the account, or if you don't want us to keep your information anymore, we will remove your application details from our system.

The information provided on the Application Form will be used to determine the offer we make to you. Along with the other personal details collected at interview, if you are subsequently enrolled, we will keep it for 6 years after you have left the College to ensure we have adequate records to deal with enquiries and complaints.
